

EUSA/ECPR JOINT WORKSHOP

Global Crises and the EU's Response

LMU Munich, 16th MARCH 2012

Location: Geschwister-Scholl-Institute of Political Science, Oettingenstraße 67, L155

9:00 – 9:30

General Welcome and Introduction

Berthold Rittberger, Amie Kreppel and Martin Bull

9:30 – 11:00

Panel I: Understanding the Eurozone Crisis

The Eurozone crisis and the problem of sovereignty

-Nicolas Jabko (Johns Hopkins University)

Southern Europe and the Eurozone crisis

-Martin Bull (University of Salford)

Lessons from Nineteenth Century America for Europe: Political Contestation and Economic Crisis

-Michelle Egan (American University)

Discussant – Amie Kreppel (University of Florida)

11:30 – 13:30

Panel II: A Way Forward? Alternative Strategies to the Eurozone Crisis

Hegemony without stability: The fiscal and political vulnerabilities of monetary union

-Waltraud Schelkle (London School of Economics)

[co-author Deborah Mabbett (Birkbeck, University of London)]

A panacea for all times? The German Stability Culture as Strategic Political Resource

-David Howarth (University of Edinburgh)

Differentiated Integration: A Way Out of the Crisis?

-Berthold Rittberger (University of Munich)

Mutual recognition as an answer to European and global regulatory problems

-Susanne Schmidt (University of Bremen)

Discussant – Adrienne Héritier (European University Institute)

15:00-17:00

Panel III: Beyond the Eurozone Crisis: Other Issues on the European Agenda

The institutional make-up of the CFSP and its democratic implications

-Helene Sjursen (University of Oslo)

The EU's Role in Global Climate Change Negotiations

-Mitchell Smith (University of Oklahoma)

The European Union's next enlargement: A new momentum for overcoming the European crisis?'

-Meltem Müftüleri-Bac (Sabancı University)

Turkey's EU accession - an opportunity missed?

-Joerg Baudner (Bremen University of Applied Sciences)

Turkey's EU accession - an opportunity missed?

-Joerg Baudner (Bremen University of Applied Sciences)

Discussant – Martin Bull (University of Salford)